TABLE OF CONTENTS

DOMAIN I
STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AND LEARNING .......... 1

COMPETENCY 001
UNDERSTAND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT, INCLUDING DEVELOPMENTAL PROCESSES AND VARIATIONS, AND USE THIS UNDERSTANDING TO PROMOTE STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AND LEARNING ................................................................. 1

| Skill 1.1 | Demonstrating knowledge of the major concepts, principles, and theories of human development (physical, cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and moral) as related to children from birth to grade six .......................................................... 1 |
| Skill 1.2 | Identifying sequences (milestones) and variations of physical, cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and moral development in children from birth to grade six .......................................................... 3 |
| Skill 1.3 | Recognizing the range of individual developmental differences in children within any given age group from birth to grade six and the implications of this developmental variation for instructional decision making .......................................................... 4 |
| Skill 1.4 | Identifying ways in which a child’s development in one domain (physical, cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, moral) may affect learning and development in other domains .......................................................... 5 |
| Skill 1.5 | Applying knowledge of developmental characteristics of learners from birth to grade six to evaluate alternative instructional goals and plans .......................................................... 6 |
| Skill 1.6 | Selecting appropriate instructional strategies, approaches, and delivery systems to promote development in given learners from birth to grade six .......................................................... 7 |

UNDERSTAND LEARNING PROCESSES, AND USE THIS UNDERSTANDING TO PROMOTE STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AND LEARNING .......... 10

| Skill 2.1 | Analyzing ways in which development and learning processes interact .......................................................... 10 |
Skill 2.2  Analyzing processes by which students construct meaning and develop skills, and applying strategies to facilitate learning in given situations (e.g., by building connections between new information and prior knowledge; by relating learning to world issues and community concerns; by engaging students in purposeful practice and application of knowledge and skills; by using tools, materials, and resources) ................................................................. 11

Skill 2.3  Demonstrating knowledge of different types of learning strategies (e.g., rehearsal, elaboration, organization, metacognition) and how learners use each type of strategy ................................................................. 12

Skill 2.4  Analyzing factors that affect students' learning (e.g., learning styles, contextually supported learning versus decontextualized learning), and adapting instructional practices to promote learning in given situations ........................................................................................................ 14

Skill 2.5  Recognizing how various teacher roles (e.g., direct instructor, facilitator) and student roles (e.g., self-directed learner, group participant, passive observer) may affect learning processes and outcomes ........................................................................................................ 17

Skill 2.6  Recognizing effective strategies for promoting independent thinking and learning (e.g., by helping students develop critical-thinking, decision-making, and problem-solving skills; by enabling students to pursue topics of personal interest) and for promoting students' sense of ownership and responsibility in relation to their own learning ........................................................................................................ 18

COMPETENCY 003 UNDERSTAND HOW FACTORS IN THE HOME, SCHOOL, AND COMMUNITY MAY AFFECT STUDENTS' DEVELOPMENT AND READINESS TO LEARN; AND USE THIS UNDERSTANDING TO CREATE A CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT WITHIN WHICH ALL STUDENTS CAN DEVELOP AND LEARN ........................................................................ 22

Skill 3.1  Recognizing the impact of sociocultural factors (e.g., culture, heritage, language, socioeconomic profile) in the home, school, and community on students' development and learning ........................................ 22
| Skill 3.2 | Analyzing ways in which student’s personal health, safety, nutrition, and past or present exposure to abusive or dangerous environments may affect their development and learning in various domains (e.g., physical, cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, moral) and their readiness to learn | 22 |
| Skill 3.3 | Recognizing the significance of family life and the home environment for student development and learning (e.g., nature of the expectations of parents, guardians, and caregivers; degree of their involvement in the student’s education) | 25 |
| Skill 3.4 | Analyzing how schoolwide structures (e.g., tracking) and classroom factors (e.g., homogenous versus heterogeneous grouping, student-teacher interactions) may affect students’ self-concept and learning | 26 |
| Skill 3.5 | Identifying effective strategies for creating a classroom environment that promotes student development and learning by taking advantage of positive factors (e.g., culture, heritage, language) in the home, school, and community and minimizing the effects of negative factors (e.g., minimal family support) | 28 |
| Skill 3.6 | Analyzing ways in which peer interactions (e.g., acceptance versus isolation, bullying) may promote or hinder a student’s development and success in school, and determining effective strategies for dealing with peer-related issues in given classroom situations | 31 |
| Skill 3.7 | Demonstrating knowledge of health, sexuality, and peer-related issues for students (e.g., self-image, physical appearance and fitness, peer-group conformity) and the interrelated nature of these issues; and recognizing how specific behaviors related to health, sexuality, and peer issues (e.g., eating disorders, drug and alcohol use, gang involvement) can affect development and learning | 35 |

UNDERSTAND LANGUAGE AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT, AND USE THIS KNOWLEDGE IN ALL CONTENT AREAS TO DEVELOP THE LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING, AND WRITING SKILLS OF STUDENTS, INCLUDING STUDENTS FOR WHOM ENGLISH IS NOT THEIR PRIMARY LANGUAGE

| Skill 4.1 | Identifying factors that influence language acquisition, and analyzing ways students’ language skills affect their overall development and learning | 38 |
Skill 4.2  Identifying expected stages and patterns of second-language acquisition, including analyzing factors that affect second-language acquisition ................................................................. 41

Skill 4.3  Identifying approaches that are effective in promoting English Language Learners’ development of English language proficiency, including adapting teaching strategies and consulting and collaborating with teachers in the ESL program ........................................ 42

Skill 4.4  Recognizing the role of oral language development, including vocabulary development, and the role of the alphabetic principle, including phonemic awareness and other phonological skills, in the development of English literacy; and identifying expected stages and patterns in English literacy development ........................................ 44

Skill 4.5  Identifying factors that influence students’ literacy development, and demonstrating knowledge of research-validated instructional strategies for addressing the literacy needs of students at all stages of literacy development, including applying strategies for facilitating students’ comprehension of texts before, during, and after reading, and using modeling and explicit instruction to teach students how to use comprehension strategies effectively ........................................ 47

Skill 4.6  Recognizing similarities and differences between the English literacy development of native English speakers and English Language Learners, including how literacy development in the primary language influences literacy development in English, and applying strategies for helping English Language Learners transfer literacy skills in the primary language to English ........................................ 51

Skill 4.7  Using knowledge of literacy development to select instructional strategies that help students use literacy skills as tool for learning; that teach students how to use, access, and evaluate information from various resources; and that support students’ development of content-area reading skills ................................................................. 51

COMPETENCY 005  UNDERSTAND DIVERSE STUDENT POPULATIONS, AND USE KNOWLEDGE OF DIVERSITY WITHIN THE SCHOOL AND THE COMMUNITY TO ADDRESS THE NEEDS OF ALL LEARNERS, TO CREATE A SENSE OF COMMUNITY AMONG STUDENTS, AND TO PROMOTE STUDENTS’ APPRECIATION OF AND RESPECT FOR INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS ........ 54
Skill 5.1  Recognizing appropriate strategies for teachers to use to enhance their own understanding of students (e.g., learning about students’ family situations, cultural backgrounds, individual needs) and to promote a sense of community among diverse groups in the classroom ................................................................. 54

Skill 5.2  Applying strategies for working effectively with students from all cultures, students of both genders, students from various socioeconomic circumstances, students from homes where English is not the primary language, and students whose home situations involve various family arrangements and lifestyles ................................. 55

Skill 5.3  Applying strategies for promoting students’ understanding and appreciation of diversity and for using diversity that exists within the classroom and the community to enhance all student’s learning........... 56

Skill 5.4  Analyzing how classroom environments that respect diversity promote positive student experiences ................................................................. 59

COMPETENCY 006  UNDERSTAND THE CHARACTERISTICS AND NEEDS OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES, DEVELOPMENTAL DELAYS, AND EXCEPTIONAL ABILITIES (INCLUDED GIFTED AND TALENTED STUDENTS); AND USE THIS KNOWLEDGE TO HELP STUDENTS REACH THEIR HIGHEST LEVELS OF ACHIEVEMENT AND INDEPENDENCE ..................................................................................... 60

Skill 6.1  Demonstrating awareness of types of disabilities, developmental delays, and exceptional abilities and of the implications for learning associated with these differences...................................................................................................................... 60

Skill 6.2  Applying criteria and procedures for evaluating, selecting, creating, and modifying materials and equipment to address individual special needs, and recognizing the importance of consulting with specialists to identify appropriate materials and equipment, including assistive technology, when working with students with disabilities, developmental delays, or exceptional abilities ............... 63

Skill 6.3  Identifying teacher responsibilities and requirements associated with referring students who may have special needs and with developing and implementing Individualized Education Plans (IEPs), and recognizing appropriate ways to integrate goals from IEPs into instructional activities and daily routines ................................. 67
Skill 6.4  Demonstrating knowledge of basic service delivery models (e.g., inclusion models) for students with special needs, and identifying strategies and resources (e.g., special education staff) that help support instruction in inclusive settings ............................................. 71

Skill 6.5  Demonstrating knowledge of strategies to ensure that students with special needs and exceptional abilities are an integral part of the class and participate to the greatest extent possible in all classroom activities................................................................. 74

DOMAIN II

INSTRUCTION AND ASSESSMENT ....................... 76

COMPETENCY 007 UNDERSTAND HOW TO STRUCTURE AND MANAGE A CLASSROOM TO CREATE A SAFE, HEALTHY, AND SECURE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT .......................................................... 76

Skill 7.1  Analyzing relationships between classroom management strategies (e.g., in relation to discipline, student decision making, establishing and maintaining standards of behavior) and student learning, attitudes, and behaviors ........................................................................................................... 76

Skill 7.2  Recognizing issues related to the creation of a classroom climate (e.g., with regard to shared values and goals, shared experiences, patterns of communication) ........................................................................................................ 79

Skill 7.3  Demonstrating knowledge of basic socialization strategies, including how to support social interaction and facilitate conflict resolution among learners, and applying strategies for instructing students on the principles of honesty, personal responsibility, respect for others, observance of laws and rules, courtesy, dignity, and other traits that will enhance the quality of their experiences in, and contributions to, the class and the greater community................. 82

Skill 7.4  Organizing a daily schedule that takes into consideration and capitalizes on the developmental characteristics of learners.............. 82

Skill 7.5  Evaluating, selecting, and using various methods for managing transitions (e.g., between lessons, when students enter and leave the classroom), and handling routine classroom tasks and unanticipated situations ........................................................................................................ 86

Skill 7.6  Analyzing the effects of the physical environment, including different spatial arrangements, on student learning and behavior ...... 88

Skill 9.5  Recognizing strategies for planning, adjusting, or modifying lessons and activities based on assessment results .............................................. 102

COMPETENCY 010  UNDERSTAND INSTRUCTIONAL PLANNING AND APPLY KNOWLEDGE OF PLANNING PROCESSES TO DESIGN EFFECTIVE INSTRUCTION THAT PROMOTES THE LEARNING OF ALL STUDENTS...
.................................................................................................................. 103

 Skill 10.1  Recognizing key factors to consider in planning instruction (e.g., New York State Learning Standards for students, instructional goals and strategies, the nature of the content and/or skills to be taught, students’ characteristics and prior experiences, students’ current knowledge and skills as determined by assessment results, available time and other resources) ........................................................................... 103

 Skill 10.2  Analyzing and applying given information about specific planning factors (see above skill) to define lesson and unit objectives, select appropriate instructional approach(es) to use in a given lesson (e.g., discovery learning, explicit instruction), determine the appropriate sequence of instruction/learning for given content or learners within a lesson and unit, and develop specific lesson and unit plans ......................................................................................................................................................... 105

 Skill 10.3  Identifying the background knowledge and prerequisite skills required by a given lesson, and applying strategies for determining students’ readiness for learning (e.g., through teacher observation, student self-assessment, pretesting) and for ensuring students’ success in learning (e.g., by planning sufficient time to preteach key concepts or vocabulary, by planning differentiated instruction) .......... 107

 Skill 10.4  Using assessment information before, during, and after instruction to modify plans and to adapt instruction for individual learners ........ 107

 Skill 10.5  Analyzing a given lesson or unit plan in terms of organization, completeness, feasibility, etc ................................................................. 108

 Skill 10.6  Applying strategies for collaborating with others to plan and implement instruction ................................................................................................................................. 111

COMPETENCY 011  UNDERSTAND VARIOUS INSTRUCTIONAL APPROACHES, AND USE THIS KNOWLEDGE TO FACILITATE STUDENT LEARNING .............................................. 114
Skill 11.1  Analyzing the uses, benefits, or limitations of a specific instructional approach (e.g., direct instruction, cooperative learning, interdisciplinary instruction, exploration, discovery learning, independent study, lectures, hands-on activities, peer tutoring, technology-based approach, various discussion methods such as guided discussion, various questioning methods) in relation to given purposes and learners .............................................................. 114

Skill 11.2  Recognizing appropriate strategies for varying the role of the teacher (e.g., working with students as instructor, facilitator, observer; working with other adults in the classroom) in relation to the situation and the instructional approach used .............................................. 116

Skill 11.3  Applying procedures for promoting positive and productive small-group interactions (e.g., establishing rules for working with other students in cooperative learning situations) .................................................. 116

Skill 11.4  Comparing instructional approaches in terms of teacher and student responsibilities, expected student outcomes, usefulness for achieving instructional purposes, etc ................................................................. 117

COMPETENCY 012  UNDERSTAND PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES FOR ORGANIZING AND IMPLEMENTING LESSONS, AND USE THIS KNOWLEDGE TO PROMOTE STUDENT LEARNING AND ACHIEVEMENT .............................................................. 118

Skill 12.1  Evaluating strengths and weaknesses of various strategies for organizing and implementing a given lesson (e.g., in relation to introducing and closing a lesson, using inductive and deductive instruction, building on students’ prior knowledge and experiences). .............................................................................................................. 118

Skill 12.2  Recognizing the importance of organizing instruction to include multiple strategies for teaching the same content so as to provide the kind and amount of instruction/practice needed by each student in the class .......................................................................................... 120

Skill 12.3  Evaluating various instructional resources (e.g., textbooks and other print resources, primary documents or artifacts, guest speakers, films and other audiovisual materials, computers and other technological resources) in relation to given content, learners (including those with special needs), and goals .............................................. 121
Skill 12.4 Demonstrating understanding of the developmental characteristics of students (e.g., with regard to attention and focus, writing or reading for extended periods of time) when organizing and implementing lessons ................................................................. 123

Skill 12.5 Applying strategies for adjusting lessons in response to student performance and student feedback (e.g., responding to student comments regarding relevant personal experiences, changing the pace of a lesson as appropriate) ........................................................................ 124

COMPETENCY 013 UNDERSTAND THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN STUDENT MOTIVATION AND ACHIEVEMENT AND HOW MOTIVATIONAL PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES CAN BE USED TO PROMOTE AND SUSTAIN STUDENT COOPERATION IN LEARNING .................................................................................................................. 125

Skill 13.1 Distinguishing between motivational strategies that use intrinsic and extrinsic rewards, and identifying the likely benefits and limitations of each approach ........................................................................................................ 125

Skill 13.2 Analyzing the effects of using various intrinsic and extrinsic motivational strategies in given situations ................................................................. 126

Skill 13.3 Recognizing factors (e.g., expectations, methods of providing specific feedback) and situations that tend to promote or diminish student motivation ....................................................................................... 126

Skill 13.4 Recognizing the relationship between direct engagement in learning and students’ interest in lessons/activities ............................................................ 127

Skill 13.5 Applying procedures for enhancing student interest and helping students find their own motivation (e.g., relating concepts presented in the classroom to students’ everyday experiences; encouraging students to ask questions, initiate activities, and pursue problems that are meaningful to them; highlighting connections between academic learning and the workplace) .......................................................... 128

Skill 13.6 Recognizing the importance of utilizing play to benefit young children’s learning .................................................................................................................. 130

Skill 13.7 Recognizing the importance of encouragement in sustaining students’ interest and cooperation in learning .................................................................................. 131
Skill 13.8 Recognizing the importance of utilizing peers (e.g., as peer mentors, in group activities) to benefit students’ learning and to sustain their interest and cooperation................................................ 132

COMPETENCY 014 UNDERSTAND COMMUNICATION PRACTICES THAT ARE EFFECTIVE IN PROMOTING STUDENT LEARNING AND CREATING A CLIMATE OF TRUST AND SUPPORT IN THE CLASSROOM, AND HOW TO USE A VARIETY OF COMMUNICATION MODES TO SUPPORT INSTRUCTION ..................135

Skill 14.1 Analyzing how cultural, gender, and age differences affect communication in the classroom (e.g., eye contact, use of colloquialisms, interpretation of body language), and recognizing effective methods for enhancing communication with all students, including being a thoughtful and responsive listener ......................135

Skill 14.2 Applying strategies to promote effective classroom interactions that support learning, including teacher-student and student-student interactions........................................................................................ 138

Skill 14.3 Analyzing teacher-student interactions with regard to communication issues (e.g., those related to communicating expectations, providing feedback, building student self-esteem, modeling appropriate communication techniques for specific situations).........................................................................................................139

Skill 14.4 Recognizing purposes for questioning (e.g., encouraging risk taking and problem solving, maintaining student engagement, facilitating factual recall, assessing student understanding), and selecting appropriate questioning techniques.................................................................141

Skill 14.5 Applying strategies for adjusting communication to enhance student understanding (e.g., by providing examples, simplifying a complex problem, using verbal and nonverbal modes of communication, using audiovisual and technological tools of communication) .........144

Skill 14.6 Demonstrating knowledge of the limits of verbal understanding of students at various ages and with different linguistic backgrounds and strategies for ensuring that these limitations do not become barriers to learning (e.g., by linking to known language; by saying things in more than one way; by supporting verbalization with gestures, physical demonstrations, dramatizations, and/or media and manipulatives) ........................................................................................................147
UNDERSTAND USES OF TECHNOLOGY, INCLUDING INSTRUCTIONAL AND ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY, IN TEACHING AND LEARNING; AND APPLY THIS KNOWLEDGE TO USE TECHNOLOGY EFFECTIVELY AND TO TEACH STUDENTS HOW TO USE TECHNOLOGY TO ENHANCE THEIR LEARNING

Skill 15.1  Demonstrating knowledge of educational uses of various technology tools, such as calculators, software applications, input devices (e.g., keyboard, mouse, scanner, modem, CD-ROM), and the Internet.................................................................148

Skill 15.2  Recognizing purposes and uses of common types of assistive technology (e.g., amplification devices, communication boards)........151

Skill 15.3  Recognizing issues related to the appropriate use of technology (e.g., privacy issues, security issues, copyright laws and issues, ethical issues regarding the acquisition and use of information from technology resources), and identifying procedures that ensure the legal and ethical use of technology resources.....................................................156

Skill 15.4  Identifying and addressing equity issues related to the use of technology in the classroom (e.g., equal access to technology for all students).............................................................159

Skill 15.5  Identifying effective instructional uses of current technology in relation to communication (e.g., audio and visual recording and display devices)........................................................................160

Skill 15.6  Applying strategies for helping students acquire, analyze, and evaluate electronic information (e.g., locating specific information on the Internet and verifying its accuracy and validity).........................161

Skill 15.7  Evaluating students' technologically produced products using established criteria related to content, delivery, and the objective(s) of the assignment .................................................................162

DOMAIN III
THE PROFESSIONAL ENVIRONMENT

COMPETENCY 016
UNDERSTAND THE HISTORY, PHILOSOPHY, AND ROLE OF EDUCATION IN NEW YORK STATE AND THE BROADER SOCIETY

---

NYSTCE ATS-W Elementary 90    xiv
Skill 16.1  Analyzing relationships between education and society (e.g., schools reflecting and affecting social values, historical dimensions of the school-society relationship, the role of education in a democratic society, the role of education in promoting equity in society) .............................................................................................. 164

Skill 16.2  Demonstrating knowledge of the historical foundations of education in the United States and of past and current philosophical issues in education (e.g., teacher-directed versus child-centered instruction). .......................................................................................................... 165

Skill 16.3  Applying procedures for working collaboratively and cooperatively with various members of the New York State educational system to accomplish a variety of educational goals ................................................................. 167

Skill 16.4  Analyzing differences between school-based and centralized models of decision making .......................................................................................................................... 168

Skill 16.5  Applying knowledge of the roles and responsibilities of different components of the education system in New York (e.g., local school boards, Board of Regents, district superintendents, school principals, Boards of Cooperative Educational Services [BOCES], higher education, unions, professional organizations, parent organizations) ..................................................................................................................... 169

COMPETENCY 017  UNDERSTAND HOW TO REFLECT PRODUCTIVELY ON ONE’S OWN TEACHING PRACTICE AND HOW TO UPDATE ONE’S PROFESSIONAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND EFFECTIVENESS .............................................................................. 171

Skill 17.1  Assessing one’s own teaching strengths and weaknesses ............................................ 171

Skill 17.2  Using different types of resources and opportunities (e.g., journals, inservice programs, continuing education, higher education, professional organizations, other educators) to enhance one’s teaching effectiveness .......................................................................................................................... 172

Skill 17.3  Applying strategies for working effectively with members of the immediate school community (e.g., colleagues, mentor, supervisor, special needs professionals, principal, building staff) to increase one’s knowledge or skills in a given situation ......................................................................................... 173

Skill 17.4  Analyzing ways of evaluating and responding to feedback (e.g., from supervisors, students, parents, colleagues) ................................................................. 176
COMPETENCY 018  UNDERSTAND THE IMPORTANCE OF AND APPLY STRATEGIES FOR PROMOTING PRODUCTIVE RELATIONSHIPS AND INTERACTIONS AMONG THE SCHOOL, HOME, AND COMMUNITY TO ENHANCE STUDENT LEARNING ................................................................. 177

Skill 18.1  Identifying strategies for initiating and maintaining effective communication between the teacher and parents or other caregivers, and recognizing factors that may facilitate or impede communication in given situations (including parent-teacher conferences)................................................................. 177

Skill 18.2  Identifying a variety of strategies for working with parents, caregivers, and others to help students from diverse backgrounds reinforce in-school learning outside the school environment.......... 178

Skill 18.3  Applying strategies for using community resources to enrich learning experiences ...................................................................................... 180

Skill 18.4  Recognizing various ways in which school personnel, local citizens, and community institutions (e.g., businesses, cultural institutions, colleges and universities, social agencies) can work together to promote a sense of neighborhood and community............................... 181

COMPETENCY 019  UNDERSTAND RECIPROCAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN SITUATIONS INVOLVING INTERACTIONS BETWEEN TEACHERS AND STUDENTS, PARENTS/GUARDIANS, COMMUNITY MEMBERS, COLLEAGUES, SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS, AND OTHER SCHOOL PERSONNEL................................................................. 182

Skill 19.1  Applying knowledge of laws related to students’ rights in various situations (e.g., in relation to due process, discrimination, harassment, confidentiality, discipline, privacy)................................. 182

Skill 19.2  Applying knowledge of a teacher’s rights and responsibilities in various situations (e.g., in relation to students with disabilities, potential abuse, safety issues)................................................................. 186

Skill 19.3  Applying knowledge if parents’ rights and responsibilities in various situations (e.g., in relation to student records, school attendance).... 188
Skill 19.4  Analyzing the appropriateness of a teacher’s response to a parent, a community member, another educator, or a student in various situations (e.g., when dealing with differences of opinion in regard to current or emerging policy) .......................................................... 189
